HISTORY

You are thirteen, Susan is twelve, Edmond is eleven and Lucy is nine. You are staying at your uncle's house since you have been sent away from London because of the War. School is on holidays due to the bombing. It is very boring here. It always rains and there is nothing to do. Uncle Kirke is locked away in his study and the Housekeeper, Mrs Macready, is a real terror. You do not like her and she does not like you. The only other person in the house is a Cockney woman. You do not know why she is here but Professor Kirke gave her the run of the house and said to keep away from her.

Your sister, Lucy, told everyone that she has been to a strange world inside the wardrobe. Edmond made fun of her as usual and called her a liar. She got very upset about this. You tried to patch things up but Edmond can be a real pain on occasions.

This house is really odd and all sorts of strange things happen here, you are going to investigate everything.

PERSONALITY

You are a very earnest young man. Quite mature and responsible for your age. You occasionally like to have fun and forget your responsibilities but you can not do so while your parents are in London being bombed. You always take the lead in any adventures. Susan is your right hand man, the others just tag along. You are very upright and correct, almost prudish. In fact, you are not at all sure that you should not say something about the Cockney lady. You suspect that she is a fallen woman.

You can be very authoritative, almost dictatorial when you need to be, but normally you see your roll as a peace keeper so you do not let this side of your nature show. The others tend to dig their heels in and become uncooperative when you try and order them around.
