HISTORY

You live with your wife in a neat, snug little home on top of a dam, in the Wild Woods, just near the burial mounds.

You and your wife have been waiting for the day when the Witch's power will be broken and Aslan will come again. That is why you were overjoyed when Mr Tumnis told you that he, had met a Daughter of Eve. The legends says that the Witch will lose her life when two sons of Adam and two daughters of Eve are crowned rulers of Narnia. Humans had not been in Narnia for centuries, so here was your hope.

You have actually met one of these humans, a boy called Edmond, and you are not so sure that they are nice. He pulled your tail. He said he had just come to Narnia, but there was something about him that you did not like, apart from the fact that he pulled your tail. You told your wife that you had met him but not your suspicions. Humans are the only chance that Narnia has, so you will forget your fears and hope.

Mrs Beaver sent you to look for the children and to help them. Mr Tumnis is a nice creature but impractical on occasions, he will need assistance with humans.

You think it may be a good idea to get some seeds from the flowers of the sun. The children will need magic to aid them in their struggle against the Witch and the seeds are the only magic you know.. The magic of growing things is the only magic you trust.

You are determined to help the children for personal reasons, as well as from your belief in Aslan. Your ancestors are responsible for the Witch conquering Narnia. Your great great grandfather killed the tree of Protection. Blinded him with great promises and he may even have eaten some turkish delight, you like to think that that was the reason and not greed. She never kept these promises. Turkish delight is magically created food that makes the person who ate it do anything to get some more.
