PERSONALITY

You are currently pretending to be a wild Cockney prostitute. independent, self sufficient and free. You are a little bit course but that goes with the character. Apart from the fact that you were not born in London and you have no interest in money, your pretence and the reality are almost identical.

OBJECTIVES

- 20 Get the magic Mirror
- 30 Find the toffee tree
- 31 Recover the Golden Bell
- 61 Find out what crime a star can commit

HISTORY

You are one of the Maenads. One of the wild women who escort Bacchus and Silenus as they travel from place to place, telling of the wonders of Wine and the way it removes the inhibitions and lightens the soul. You are a free spirit. You do what you want without a care in the world. You make a special effort not to hurt others by your actions but will not let this consideration stop you or inhibit you in any way. You are in Professor Kirks' house because the White Witch of narnia has opened up a door into this world from her cellar in her palace in Narnia. You are keeping an eye on the White Witch because she represents everything that you oppose. hate, repression, lack of free will and a sense of fun. You do not want this to spread to Earth.

You are presently pretending to be a Cockney prostitute. The personality appeals to you and is close to the real you. Professor Kirke had no difficulty in giving you free run of the house once you had seduced him. He was a bit worried about the children, but you assured him that you would not disturb them.

In fact, one of them, Susan, has taken a shine to you. You quite like her, she has the right attitude.

You have learnt that the Witch has come to Earth to try and recover her Golden bell which she left in Charn. You do not know how this relates to Earth.
