PERSONALITY

Professor Kirke is a true, absent minded professor. He likes children and animals but in an off hand, forgetful, sort of way. he believes in Narnia and Aslan.

Fenris on the other hand is an enthusiastic go getter. He is full of energy and life with a strong desire to succeed.

HISTORY

You are a wolf, a member of Maugrim's secret police. You work for the White Witch, but that does not mean that you are loyal. You are not necessarily disloyal either, being a secret policeman is a job you enjoy, and working for the Witch is much safer than not working for her.

Until recently your job entailed spying on other people, finding out information, helping round up dissidents, and generally terrorising the population. Then things changed, you were given a special assignment. The Witch used her magic to change your appearance, and then you both used a secret gate that she had made in the cellar of her house, to go to another world, Earth. Using the gate was obviously very difficult for the Witch.

You are Professor Diggory Kirke, a Son of Adam who traveled to Narnia when the world was being formed, and the Witch is Mrs Macready, your housekeeper. You do not know why the Witch has done all this, or what happened to the real Professor Kirke and Mrs Macready. Your orders are to keep the children amused and to help the Witch should she request it.

There is another person in the house. A Cockney woman, you do not know why she is there but the children say that Professor Kirke gave her the run of the house and told them to keep away from her. The reason he said to keep away is obvious, she is a prostitute. Professor Kirke must have let her in during the last few days. You do not have the professor's memories of this period. You will have to be very careful that she does not suspect anything.

One interesting side effect of the spell is that with Professor Kirke's memories you know things that the Witch does not. You know about the magic rings. You know everything that Diggory did while in Narnia, such as: visiting the Tree of Life and seeing the Witch eat one of the silver apples; using the rings to travel to the Wood between the Worlds, and how the Witch almost died there; using the rings to travel to Charn, the Witch's home world, and waking the Witch up by ringing a golden bell; Planting the Tree of Protection, hiding the rings in the garden.

Another side effect, if it lasts, is that you now look like a human. You are therefore eligible to become ruler of Narnia. Not that the Witch would let you, she would simply cancel the spell, but other people do not know that. Maybe you can use your looks to your advantage somehow.
