PERSONALITY

You are strong willed and independent. You know that you are as good as a boy so you do not need to press the issue. You respect Peter more than you like him, and so you are quite prepared to follow his lead.

One day when you are grown up you know that you will have to prove yourself in a man's world, but fortunately not yet.

HISTORY

Peter is thirteen, you are twelve, Edmond is eleven and Lucy is nine. You are staying at your uncle's house since you have been sent away from London because of the War. School is on holidays due to the bombing. It is very boring here, it always rains and there is nothing to do. Uncle Kirke is locked away in his study and the Housekeeper, Mrs Macready, is a real terror. You do not like her and she does not like you. The only other person in the house is a Cockney woman. You do not know why she is there but Professor Kirke gave her the run of the house and said to keep away from her. You like her. She is a bit course, but she is nice and she seems interested in you. She is as independent and strong willed as you want to be one day.

OBJECTIVES

- 23 Get a set of rings
- 29 Help the other three
- 62 Get some water from the wood between the worlds

Your sister, Lucy, told everyone that she has been to a strange world, the world of Narnia, inside the wardrobe. Edmond made fun of her as usual and called her a liar. She got very upset about this, Lucy hates being called a liar. Peter tried to patch things up but it did not work. Edmond can be a real pain on occasions. Lucy's story made you think of the things that you were told by aunt Polly, as bed time stories, when you were very young. She used to talk of a young boy and girl that found some magic rings and went to strange worlds. One of those world was also called Narnia. They got to them by traveling through a strange wood with many pools in it. You always thought that they were fairy stories now you are not sure.
