PERSONALITY

You are dreadfully boring, you tend to drone and blather, to talk for hours and not say anything. You are impressed with hearing the sound of your own voice.

You are also a greedy, miser. The nicest thing someone could say about you is that you are money hungry.

HISTORY

You are a priest of the Dwarven peoples. No one in Narnia knows that some Dwarves do not worship Aslan and the Emperor-over-seas. This is a secret you mean to keep.

You actually live in the treasure hoard. The hoard is sacred to all dwarves. It is located under the secret hill, at the bottom of the Deep mines. The entrance to the mines is located behind the waterfall, in the western Wilds. Not in Narnia at all.

As a priest you know the secret of the fire stones. The fire stones are the rocks that cover the secret hill. They are continually burning. They can not normally be used for anything because they can not be touched. However, they only burn if they have air so they can be carried in water pots. These make effective missiles.

You do not know what the White Witch's chamberlain is up to, but what ever it is, has paid off handsomely for you. He has paid you the equivalent of 6 months wages to get you to make a solid gold wand and to forget all about it. For that kind of money you would forget your own name, until it would pay to remember that is. It would be bad for business to be too untrustworthy but that does not stop you from looking and listening.

OBJECTIVES

22 Get one of the silver apples

24 Find the trees of gold and silver

50 Find out why a duplicate wand was made

63 Get Jadis' crown back
